Deputy Administrator Federal Aviation Agency Washington 25, D. C. Dear Mr. Pyle: The copy of the Air Transport Association's report, "Red Star into the West," which you forwarded to me under letter dated 25 June was most interesting. I quite agree that there is a lot in this which would be of concern to us. It is numberstanding that understanding that and I am looking forward to hearing your views. I also recall the discussion at the OCB meeting on 24 June in which you participated so effectively. It is hoped we can all make a little faster progress toward implementing the policy which was on the agenda that day. The decisions of the Board appear to be a step in this direction. Sincerely, SiGNED Allen W. Dulles Director BA/OCB/ lp 30 Jun 59 Rewritten: O/DCI/ blp 1 Jul 59) to
